A Joyful Concert to Celebrate Israel's 50th Jubilee

Sunday, March 22, 1998

It is with tremendous pride and joy that the Park Avenue Synagogue community will be planning various celebrations in honor of the state of Israel's 50th year as an independent, modern nation. The first celebration will be a joyous musical evening being planned by our two cantors David Lefkowitz and Nancy Abramson. This concert will take place in the Main Sanctuary at 7 P.M. on Sunday, March 22, 1998.

Accompanying our cantors will be students from both the Jewish Theological Seminary and Hebrew Union College cantorial schools, the Synagogue Concert Choir, with soloists and instrumentalists, Abraham Kaplan, conducting, and Neil Robinson at the organ.

Emphasis will be on the theme of peace, with music which expresses our hope and prayers for peace in the modern home of the Jewish People. The concert will feature various settings and melodies of the poem "Hatikvah," Israel's national anthem written 100 years ago, including David Nowakowsky's composition, "Tikvatenu." It will also feature the music of several modern Israeli composers, including Yehezkiel Braun, Naomi Shemer and Moshe Wilensky.

This concert will be the Sarah and Samuel Shapiro Memorial Concert, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. George M. Shapiro, and will be held instead of the annual Shabbat morning Liturgical Music Service.

The Search For Common Ground

Rabbi Sheldon Zimmerman

Rabbi Avi Weiss

Rabbi David H. Lincoln

On Thursday, April 2 at 7:30 P.M., an historic panel discussion will take place at the Park Avenue Synagogue under the auspices of the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies.

Three prominent leaders of Reform, Orthodox and Conservative Judaism will participate in a most important dialogue regarding their hope for the future of Judaism. This discussion will be somewhat different from the normal panel dialogues in that it will tackle some important theological differences between the various movements and not just be a discussion of the obvious areas of cooperation. This comes at a timely moment in the history of Judaism, as we all struggle to ensure some future for our people.

We are delighted that the president of the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, Rabbi Sheldon Zimmerman, has agreed to represent the Reform movement. Many of you will remember him as the rabbi of Central Synagogue in New York City. As a prominent national leader of Reform Judaism, Rabbi Zimmerman has served as president of the Central Conference of American Rabbis and as vice president of the World Union for Progressive Judaism. A lecturer in liturgy, rabbinics and theology at various universities, he is the foremost expert of Progressive Judaism.

The Park Avenue Synagogue is also delighted to welcome Rabbi Avi Weiss, national president of the Coalition for Jewish Concerns and the spiritual leader of The Hebrew Institute of Riverdale in the Bronx. Rabbi Weiss also serves as assistant professor of Jewish studies at Stern College, Yeshiva University, where he has been a full-time member of the Judaic faculty for the past 25 years. His passionate concern for the welfare of Jews around the world has led him to Buenos Aires, the Carmelite convent at Auschwitz, Bergen-Belsen and Bitberg, as well as to Oslo, where he protested the giving of the Nobel Peace and in celebration of the state of Israel, will follow the concert.

The second major celebration of Israel's 50th Jubilee will take place on Sunday afternoon, May 3, 1998.

Plan to attend both gala events!

Two Stories From Our Youth

The First Story:

Carol Hendin, the director of the Park Avenue Synagogue Early Childhood Center, has been walking around for the past couple of months telling this story related to her by a parent whose child is in the school.

"One night at the Shabbat dinner table, just as my husband was about to recite kiddush, our daughter stopped him. 'Wait,' she said. 'Dad, I know this one. I learned it in nursery school.' She then recited her version of the kiddush. 'Barukh Atah Adonai Eloheinu Melekh Ha-olam burray for me for nothing (borei pri bagafen).'"

I love this story. I love it because I love how kids hear what goes on in their world and how they invest with meaning words that, as yet, have no real meaning to them. But, beyond that, I love this story for the positive sense of Judaism it portrays.

"Hurray for me for nothing," means essentially: I am happy to be Jewish. It feels special. And all I have to do is be myself.

The Second Story:

This quote comes from a high school student lamenting the lack of Jewish girls to date. After a conversation about how difficult it is to find peers (especially girls) interested in Judaism, this student remarked: "I would be so happy if a girl came up to me and said: Do you want to go to minyan? That would make my day." Now, who would have thought that a high school student would appreciate such a line? The truth is that most high school students probably would not. Still, this interaction gave me great hope.

There is a love of Judaism out there among our youth. Parents and teachers are working hard to provide children with positive Jewish experiences and a strong Jewish identity. A positive Jewish identity comes not just from saying to our students, our children: "This is what you must do Jewishly" (thereby excluding ourselves), but from living Jewish lives. Our students, our children, then see how important Judaism is to us, and not just how important it is for us to pass Judaism down to them.

Two Purim Megillah Readings on Wednesday, March 11

The holiday of Purim begins on Wednesday evening, March 11. After the 5:45 P.M. Minhah and Maariv Service in the Chapel, at 6 P.M., the Poppy Seed Players will present the "Purim Story" to children in the Gan, Alef and Bet grades in the Hall of Worship. Then, a brief Megillah Reading will be held in the Main Sanctuary at 6:45 P.M., to be followed by a Full Reading of the Megillah which will take place in the Chapel at 8 P.M.

Everyone-young and old alike-is invited to come celebrate Purim! Dress the children in adorable costumes and come (kvel) look upon them with great pride! There will be hamantaschen for children of all ages!

The Megillah will also be read at the morning service at 6:45 A.M. on Thursday, March 12.

Purim Holiday Customs

It is traditional to do the following things on the holiday of Purim:

- Listen to the Reading of the Megillah recited in the synagogue on Wednesday evening, March 11, either at 6:45 P.M. (brief reading) or at 8 P.M. (full reading).

- Send mishloach manot, sometimes referred to as shalach manot, a gift of at least two kinds of food to at least one person.

- Give matanot l'evyonim, at least two gifts to two poor people (donations of food or money to the Park Avenue Synagogue Food Pantry or contributions to the Park Avenue Synagogue Welfare/Passover Fund or to the Tikun Olam Committee will fulfill this mitzvah).

- Attend the 6:45 A.M. morning service and Megillah Reading on Thursday, March 12.

- Enjoy a festive dinner late in the day of Purim on Thursday, March 12.

Friday Night Services at 6:15 P.M.

Why not end your week with a spiritual experience!

Come and participate in Park Avenue Synagogue's brief and participatory service on the eve of every Shabbat, at 6:15 P.M.

Come sing with a heart full of joy!

Gary Rosenblatt Editor and Publisher of The Jewish Week to Speak Monday, March 9

The Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies is proud to announce that Gary Rosenblatt, editor and publisher of The Jewish Week of New York since the summer of 1993, has been invited to speak at the Park Avenue Synagogue at 8 P.M. on Monday evening, March 9, 1998.

With its five regional editions and circulation of more than 90,000, The Jewish Week is the largest Jewish newspaper in the United States.

Prior to coming to New York, Mr. Rosenblatt was editor of the Baltimore Jewish Times for 19 years, and during that time also served as editor of The Jewish News of Detroit (for nine years) and the Atlanta Jewish Times (for four years).

He has won numerous awards for his writing from both secular and Jewish organizations. His analysis of the Simon Wiesenthal Center of Los Angeles was a finalist for the 1985 Pulitzer Prize in the category of Special Reporting. The honor marked the first time an article in a Jewish publication was cited in the Pulitzer competition, which dates back to 1917.

Rosenblatt's weekly column in The Jewish Week, "Between the Lines," is syndicated by the Jewish Telegraphic Agency to Jewish newspapers throughout the country.

A native of Annapolis, Md, Gary Rosenblatt and his wife, Judith, have three children: Avi, Talia and Dov.

Mark your calendar and plan to attend what promises to be a highly informative and interesting program.

A Reminder!

Please remember to notify the business office of the synagogue with any changes either in your home or business address and/or your home or business telephone number.

WEG Program Event Monday, March 16

"UJA and Beyond: Options for Conservative Jews' Donations to Israel" will be the topic of the Women's Evening Group's program at 8 P.M. on March 16, 1998. The program will discuss the role and purposes of UJA-Federation, the New Israel Fund and other groups that provide support for institutions and projects in Israel. It will feature a panel made up of:

- David Arnow, past president of the New Israel Fund, who currently is a vice president of UJA-Federation. Mr. Arnow is also a research fellow at the Center for Jewish Studies at the CUNY Graduate Center and a psychologist in training.
- Jerome Chanes, program director for the National Foundation for Jewish Culture. In addition to this position, Prize to Yasser Arafat. Because of Rabbi Weiss's deep love for all Jews, he will be a most worthy representative for Orthodox Judaism.

Our own senior rabbi, David H. Lincoln, will represent the Conservative view. He is honored that two such outstanding personalities have agreed to be with us that evening.

The event will be chaired by Menachem Rosensaft, chairman of the Sherr Institute, who is a close friend of all three panelists.

Cemetery Visitation

We are aware of the fact that some of our members whose loved ones are interred in Sharon Gardens, the congregation's cemetery in Valhalla, N.Y., are without a means of transportation to visit the graves. We are considering renting a bus to transport our members to the cemetery — if there is sufficient interest.

We would hope to conduct such a visitation twice a year: the first would take place just after Passover, on Tuesday, April 21, and a second trip would be made prior to the High Holidays. Rabbi Stern would accompany the group and offer the appropriate graveside prayers for those who desire them.

Please call Bunny Abraham at 369-2600, extension 148, if you are interested in reserving a seat on the bus. The cost would be $10 round trip per person.

What Does It Matter to Me?

Israelis often respond to one another with this phrase, as if to say "so what?" But it's a fair question to ask about our support of the Masorti Movement. How does support of the Masorti Movement, the Conservative Movement in Israel, benefit American Jews?

Our support of the Masorti Movement responds to those who attack our legitimacy and authenticity. Jews all over the world regard Israel as the core Jewish center and their spiritual home. How Jews are treated in Israel impacts directly on how Jews are treated in the United States and elsewhere. So what is done in Israel that brings the legitimacy of Masorti Judaism into question impacts adversely on the legitimacy of Conservative Jews in the United States. By supporting Masorti Judaism in Israel we assert our own authenticity as Conservative American Jews.

Our support of the Masorti Movement in Israel makes our community stronger here. The greatest strength of the Jewish People is its unity. Forces that divide our community leave us in peril. The Masorti Movement works for religious tolerance, equality and acceptance of all Jews. Strengthening the Masorti Movement strengthens Conservative Jewry, which strengthens us.

Our support of the Masorti Movement helps to weave a stronger fabric of Jewish life in Israel and around the world. Conservative Jews believe strongly in Jewish law and tradition. Conservative Judaism understands the Talmud's teaching that there can be different ways to apply Jewish law to particular situations, and that each can be correct. Rather than defining Jewish law in a narrow, restricted way, Conservative Judaism defines it in a more open, embracing way. Support of the Masorti Movement advances those essential Talmudic values, which helps all Jews become stronger.

Our support of the Masorti Movement makes Israel stronger, which makes us stronger. A strong, secure Israel is a central concern for Jews in the United States and around the world. American Jews understand that a strong Israel contributes to our own Jewish security and to the security of distressed Jews. The Masorti Movement is helping to make Israel stronger by strengthening its tolerance, its democratic nature and its ability to act as a strong, pluralistic state.

The Men's Club's Annual Shabbat Eve Service Friday, March 13

This year, the Men's Club will mark its 50th anniversary and year of service to the Park Avenue Synagogue. In honor of this milestone, the organization will hold its annual Friday Night Service at 6:15 P.M. on March 13, 1998. (The details of the program for this evening will be announced at a later date.)

This special Friday night service will be followed by a Congregational Shabbat Dinner to help celebrate the Men's Club's milestone year. The cost for the dinner is $25 per person; $10 each for children under 8 years of age. Please call the synagogue office (369-2600) to make your reservation.

Jewish Survival Skills

This informal, ongoing series sponsored by the Parents' Association is an open forum designed primarily, but not exclusively, for parents of children in the religious schools. Its primary purpose is to answer basic questions about any and all aspects on Jewish practice, prayer and belief.

Sessions are held from 5 to 5:45 P.M. in the Cohen Library and are scheduled so that parents of children in both the Monday/Wednesday and Tuesday/Thursday classes may attend. At the conclusion of the class, participants join the evening minyan in the Chapel. The end of the service coincides with dismissal of the religious school.

Join us on Monday, March 9 and/or Tuesday, March 10, and again on Monday, April 6 and/or Tuesday, April 7.

Rabbi Stern leads each session. Any questions may be directed to him at 369-2600, extension 111.

Yad Vashem Official To Speak at Shabbat April 4 Service

Dr. Mordecai Paldiel, director of Yad Vashem's Department of the Righteous Among the Nations will be the congregation's guest speaker at the Shabbat morning service on Saturday, April 4.

Dr. Paldiel, a native of Belgium, has held this post since the completion of his doctorate from Temple University in 1982. In this position, Dr. Paldiel has been responsible for all facets of the Righteous program: for soliciting, gathering, examining and processing testimonies from all countries, and honoring non-Jewish rescuers of Jews during the Holocaust. He is the author of numerous articles and three books dealing with this topic: The Path of the Righteous, Sheltering the Jews, and Whosoever Saves One Life.

Please join us for services beginning at 9:15 A.M. to hear some of the remarkable, fascinating and inspiring stories of human courage and heroism that are the focus of Dr. Paldiel's vocation.

The Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies is the sponsor of this program.

News From the Parents' Association

Spring time once again means it's time for the annual Passover Candy Sale. The children of both the Park Avenue Synagogue Early Childhood Center and the Mazer School of Religious Studies will be selling lots of goodies from Barton's. Since this is the Parents' Association's largest fundraising event of the year, please support it wholeheartedly by buying lots of candy. If you do not know a student in either of the schools and you want to purchase candy, please call either Marlene Muskin (437-8778), Marcia Stone (570-6239) or Laurie Harris (570-9628).

The proceeds of this annual sale enable the Parents' Association to enrich the educational experiences of our children by buying items that are needed in the schools and library.

After you have celebrated Passover, get ready to mark the occasion of Israel's 50th Birthday. Save the afternoon of Sunday, May 3, 1998 for a congregational party to rejoice upon this historical event.

Myriad March Events in the Mazer Religious School

March is the month of merriment, joy and fun in the elementary religious school. Coming up are the following events:

- Sunday, March 1 from 1:30 to 3 P.M., the Gan and Alef grades will have a Purim parent/student Art program with art teacher Aya Miron in Room 404.

- Friday, March 6 at 6:15 P.M., the Hay grade will conduct the Friday Night Service in the Main Sanctuary. After the service, students and their parents will enjoy a festive Shabbat dinner.

- Saturday, March 7, the Vav grade will have a parent/student "Together" program at 8:45 A.M. in Room 308. Rabbi Zaiman will conduct the session on "Bar/Bat Mitzvah in the Jewish Tradition."

- Sunday, March 8, the school will hold its annual Purim Carnival from 11 A.M. to 1:30 P.M. All, young and old alike, are invited to join in the fun: games, raffles, food and more.

- Monday, March 9, the Bet grade will have its second parent/student "Together" program at 5 P.M. in Room 408. The topic will be "Tefilah."

- Wednesday, March 11 at 6 P.M., the Poppy Seed Theater will present the Purim story to the Gan, Alef and Bet grades in the Hall of Worship. Then, a brief reading of Megilat Ester will take place at 6:45 P.M. in the Main Sanctuary.

- Thursday, March 26, the Alef grade students will visit a Matzah factory where they will learn about the process of making matzot and will bake their own matzah.

- Tuesday, March 31, the Gan grade students will visit the Matzah factory.

Men's Club "Greeters Committee"

The Men's Club has initiated a "Greeters Committee." This committee, in conjunction with the other arms of the synagogue, and chaired by Milt Gelman, will be responsible for helping to make people feel more comfortable at the kiddushim after Shabbat morning services. Members of the committee will wear red flowers on their lapels to distinguish them from all other persons at the kiddushim.

However, if veteran synagogue members know of new synagogue members or of people attending services for the first time, it would be appreciated if you would point them out to either Milt or Mal Eisenberg so that they can be welcomed.

Condolences

New Sherr Institute Courses for the Spring Semester

Three new courses will be offered as part of the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies ongoing program of adult education classes, workshops, lectures and special events.

Beginning on Tuesday, March 10, Rabbi Joseph A. Brodie, vice president for Student Affairs at the Jewish Theological Seminary, will offer a six-session course on Jeremiah, the Man and His World. Rabbi Brodie has been teaching in the Sherr Institute for many years, sharing his knowledge and insights about the various prophetic books with our members. Classes begin at 8 P.M. and will meet on March 10, 17, 24, April 14, 21 and 28. Tuition is $40 for members; $50 for non-members.

Rabbi Kenneth A. Stern will teach a six-session class on Jewish Death and Mourning Customs: the meaning and theology of our practices. The course will begin at 8 P.M. on Wednesday, March 18, with additional sessions on March 25, April 1, 15, 29 and May 6. Tuition is free.

A Beginners' Hebrew reading class with master teacher Vivian Finkel will be held on 10 successive Tuesday evenings from 7 to 8 P.M. starting on March 17. Tuition is $125 for members; $150 for non-members.

Please call Ms. Bunny Abraham at 369-2600, extension 148, to register for these classes and with any questions that you may have.

A Kosher Taste of New York

The Culinary Event of the Season

On Sunday, April 5 at 6:30 P.M., the Solomon Schechter School of Manhattan, housed in the Park Avenue Synagogue, will sponsor Manhattan's version of the Academy Awards for the kosher culinary establishments of New York City. Awards will be presented by Arthur Schwartz, famed restaurant critic.

This event is the only one of the year, in support of the Solomon Schechter School, which is open to the general public. The program features Israel's Consul General, Hon. Shmuel Sisso, and a number of world-class Jewish entertainers and celebrities.

For further information and/or to make reservations, please call 427-9500.

WEG Discount Movie Tickets

Loews/Sony ($65 for 10) and Cineplex Odeon ($55 for 10) discount movie tickets are available (plus $3 for certified mail delivery). Send your check to the synagogue, made payable to WEG-Park Avenue Synagogue, with a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Purim at Judaica Classics at 125 East 85th Street

According to tradition, Judaica Classics, at 125 East 85th Street, is offering a wide assortment of Purim baskets, which range in price from $15 to $150, to help you with your mishloach manot or shalach manot needs. These gifts of delicacies sent to family and friends will add special meaning to the upcoming holiday of Purim.

Judaica Classics will be happy to take your order either in person or over the phone at (772-4271). Delivery service can also be provided. Please identify yourself as a Park Avenue Synagogue member and PAS will benefit from your purchase.
